Foreword

We, the senior class, take pleasure in presenting to you our yearbook, the 1964 NIGHTINGALE. In preparing this yearbook, we have endeavored to bring back to you fond memories of years well spent. We offer to you this verbal and pictorial reminiscence by which to remember us. We leave to you our best wishes—and, we hope, a good example to follow or better. We leave, but a part of our hearts will remain behind us.

Rex Hospital School of Nursing,

Raleigh, North Carolina

Dedication . . .

To an instructor who can be depended upon for encouragement when needed most . . . a loyal friend of students and faculty who works unselfishly without losing her patience or sense of humor . . . and for her untiring efforts in guiding our footsteps in the pathways of our profession.

We the senior class of the Rex Hospital School of Nursing dedicate the 1964 NIGHTINGALE to

MRS. REBECCA GLICKMAN SCOGGIN

What's so funny about "tired blood"?

They said it couldn't be done!

MRS. REBECCA GLICKMAN SCOGGIN

And I want 4 bananas, 1 loaf of bread, and some mayonnaise!

As usual, we forgot the bus tickets!

The Juniors seem to enjoy their sock hop.

Where the boys are ... the State Glee Club visits.

Surely we must be dreaming ... white uniforms at last!

Life . . .

The Senior Sock Hop was really a "blast" this year—"I could have danced all night!"

What does Ben Casey have that I don't have? Why, I just do photography on the side.

Pebble Beach beauties--No water but plenty of sun—if weather (and faculty) permit!

Don't worry Susan, only 523 more streamers to hang, then they'll let us go to closed study!

Ain't we cute all frocked up for the big dance?

Rex Hospital School of Nursing 1894-1964

The first Rex Hospital

And in the beginning—"Died in the city of Raleigh, North Carolina, on Wednesday the 29th day of January 1839, John Rex, an old and respected citizen."

When the will of John Rex was probated it was found that he had willed his entire estate, in North Carolina, in trust to Duncan Cameron and George W. Mordecai whom he had appointed executors and trustees. These trustees were instructed, in the will, to first pay his debts, free his seventeen slaves and establish them in a colony in Africa, and then use the balance of his remaining estate to establish a hospital for the care of the sick and afflicted poor of the city of Raleigh.

From this beginning came Rex Hospital which, fifty years later, opened its doors to the people of Raleigh on May 1, 1894. The hospital staff consisted solely of volunteers who, except for the physicians, had no training in caring for the sick.

The Trustees soon found that, to give the care needed by the patients, someone trained in the art of nursing was necessary to carry out the orders of the doctors.

In June of 1894, Mary Lewis Wyche, a North Carolinian who had just graduated from the Philadelphia General Hospital School of Nursing, was employed by the Board of Trustees of Rex Hospital to act as head nurse, matron and bookkeeper.

After working with the young volunteers at the hospital, Miss Wyche began to dream of a school of nursing in her own state where eager young women could learn the art of nursing. She soon convinced the physicians and the board members that this would be the best thing for the welfare of the patients.

On October 6, 1894 the FIRST SCHOOL OF NURSING IN NORTH CAROLINA was established at Rex Hospital with an enrollment of five students.

The candle of Nursing Knowledge lighted by Mary Lewis Wyche at Rex Hospital School of Nursing SEVENTY YEARS AGO has not dwindled but has grown bigger and brighter with each year.

The class of 1964, which numbers 30 students, will bring to a total the number of 1098 nurses who have graduated from Rex Hospital School of Nursing.

Our Prayer

O, Lord, in my important task
I need Thy guiding hand.
Give me the qualities, I ask,
To care; to understand;
To do the many things each day
Which rise in this, my calling,
In which, with Thy great help, I may
Avoid mistakes befalling.

Help me make this, my place of work,
A happy one—a glad one.
May I avoid the perils that lurk
That could make it a sad one.
Help me to earn respect of those
Who, with me, form the team
In this vocation we all chose
With "All for one" our theme;

That "one" —our patient—child of Thine,
Whose health and hopes have faded.
Help us our efforts to combine
So that he may be aided.
And may I always understand
His loved ones' apprehension;
And give them too, a helping hand
To ease their mental tension.

Fill all men's hearts with charity.
May it be kept alive
So that, with regularity,
They give and we survive.
Bless doctors, nurses and each one
Who works with daily zest
Within our walls. When work is done
Grant them their well-earned rest.

May those, with fears and those in pain
Who toss in our white beds
Take heart and rapidly regain
Their hopes and health instead.
Without Thy help our work is naught—
Our efforts all in vain.
Help us to do the things we ought,
Thy mission to attain.

Amen

John H. Hayes

Honoring “Our Parents”

Because of your strong faith I kept the track,
Whose sharp-set stones my strength had well nigh spent,
I could not meet your eyes if I turned back.
So on I went ...

Because you whose love and whose faith was so strong,
You whose kindness, courage, and praise was there
To help me on in times when the way seemed so long.
So on I went ...

Because you have been for me an ideal
With understanding and unfaltering patience,
And guided me through until the end.
So on I went ...

Today I'm a nurse—it seems but a dream,
My training is done—I have come to the end,
And my first grateful thought is of you.
For all these things, Mom and Dad, and many more,
I thank you from the bottom of my heart.

T'was The Night Before Graduation

T'was the night before Graduation, when all through the dorm,
The Seniors were all waiting for that glorious morn.
Our graduate uniforms were all pressed and starched,
As we waited and anticipated that unforgettable march.
The Seniors, all gathered for their last rendezvous
Couldn't wait for the change to "whites" from "blues".
While we planned for the time when we all would be parted,
We laughed as we thought of the day that we started.

The year '61—the month of September,
Oh me! Oh my! How well we remember, —
Those first days of homesickness and evenings of fun
Were soon to be forgotten as classes begun.
We all worked together, each side by side,
And our only perfume was "our cat's" formaldehyde!
We learned how to properly give an injection,
And memorized the symptoms of a million infections.
Oh, but it was hard, to cram in the knowledge,
But all of us knew our way to State College!
Finally the night came when none of us napped,
For the day had arrived when we would be capped.

We donned our caps and felt like kings
As we moved on along "to bigger and better things".
And when we grew weary, someone would remind us,
At least we now had that first year behind us.

Now we were Juniors and we moved up the hall,
Tormented the Freshmen—and had a ball.
OB and DR and the Newborn nursery,
OR, Pediatrics, Medicine and Surgery.
"Hopefully" we planned for a weekend of heaven,
Then they told us our shift was, of course, 3 to 11.
But just as it seemed we could no longer stand
We found consolation in our little black band.
And when we grew weary, someone would remind us,
At least we now had two years behind us.

Now we were Seniors—and surely proud of it,
"Though the thoughts of "State Boards" was nothing to covet.
We packed up our bags and moved to the "Hill",
Where for three months we cared for the mentally ill.
Then back to Rex we came with such a clatter,
No one had to look to see what was the matter.

It was home to the old room and all of our buddies—
And staying up nights writing "bib cards" and case studies.
The Emergency Room was full of much drama,
But working 11 to 7 was really great trauma.
We helped the patients their burdens to bear
And treated them all with "Intensive Care".
When we now grow weary, no one has to remind us,
That our three years at Rex are now all behind us.
For our dream has come true as we hopefully prayed it,
And with tear-dimmed eyes, we sigh—"GRADUATION", We made it.

The Student Government participates in many worthy events throughout the year which include the District, State, and National Student Nurses' Associations and Conventions, and the selection of a student within the state who is most worthy of being our State Student Nurse of the Year. This student must possess qualities of leadership, scholastic achievement, and nursing ability. Lynda Barnard was chosen from Rex to be our entry for the State Student Nurse of 1963.

The library serves as an excellent reservoir of resource material for classes and various papers required in each division of the student's curriculum. It also provides a wide variety of reading entertainment through a broad selection of fiction books and popular magazines. Junior and senior students may apply for positions as library assistants, tending the library during the evening hours and being paid for their work in this capacity. ## Residence Director

MRS. DOROTHY NISWONGER

Mrs. Niswonger, our Residence Director, has many jobs to keep our Nurses' Home running smoothly. Some of her duties include directing the housemothers, making out work schedules, serving on various committees, acting as hostess at the desk, and of course supervising the work around the dorm.

Freshman Housemother

So this is nursing—Wonder when we'll see a real live PATIENT!

MRS. CHRISTINE JOHNSON

Mrs. Johnson, a resident of Raleigh, has been the freshman housemother since July 1962. She has the difficult job of taming all new freshmen, and orienting them to their new home. Since her arrival here, she has found her duties to include housekeeping, maintenance man, chief fireman, and on weekends and at nights a substitute nurse.

Don't give up—the Juniors and Seniors assure us that things will get worse.

The Freshmen struggle with their problems, but it all comes out in the wash—I think they call it "nervous energy."

MRS. HATTIE STALLINGS

Mrs. Stallings is the housemother for the Junior and Senior classes. She came to Rex in November of 1956. Since then there have been many changes in the school but she still seems to enjoy her job. Her biggest job is seeing that we keep our rooms clean, and the kitchens tidy.

In Memoriam

No physician, in so far as he is a physician, considers his own good in what he prescribes, but the good of his patient; for the true physician is also a ruler having the human body as a subject, and is not a mere money-maker.

"He was the good doctor. He was the beloved doctor. And in all aspects of his mind and spirit, he was a beautiful man."

Jonathan Daniels

A Note of Thanks . . .

Many factors go into the making of a yearbook but the people behind the scenes are the ones who help make it a true picture of school life. We owe a great deal to those who have contributed so much to our publication.

At HUNTER PUBLISHING COMPANY, we say thank you to MR. ED GOLDSTON for the never ending help, advice and encouragement given us in the printing of our book. To MR. & MRS. F. LAVERGNE JOHNSON of LAVERGNE'S OF CHAPEL HILL, we thank you for the expert pictures and patience in working with our difficult time schedule. The service was not only efficient and of excellent quality, but pleasant during our portrait and candid sessions.

CHARLIE GILLIAM deserves our deepest appreciation for services too numerous to mention, but mostly for his genuine interest and support. MRS. SCOGGIN and MISS MERROW as our advisors have given unselfishly of their time, energy, and suggestions toward the publication of this book. To them we are deeply indebted.

To ELIZA, JUDITH, LINDA, JENNY, CHARLOTTE and KAY, our staff, who have worked so tirelessly in all facets, we are infinitely appreciative. MISS ALMA KERMON has worked hard for Rex student nurses, but this year we owe her a special thanks for the history and photographs she generously contributed commemorating the 70th Anniversary of our School.

Classmates always help each other and this year is no exception. Thank you CLASSMATES for your help in selling ads, writing copy, and in making many helpful suggestions. To the MERCHANTS, BUSINESSMEN, and INDIVIDUAL SPONSORS of our yearbook, we say thank you for showing your interest in our school and for helping to make our 1964 Nightingale possible.

As the years of the future become the years of the present, may your Nightingale be an ever near encyclopedia of memories—academic, social, and service, for the year 1964. Many good wishes from us and the entire Nightingale staff.

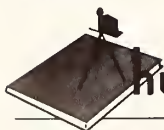

Sue and Med
